

APLU EVENTS AND TOURNAMENTS

General Statement:

This is a Code of Conduct for all players representing an Asia Pacific Lacrosse (APLU) member country at an APLU event. Any violations of this Code may result in suspension and dismissal from the involved country's lacrosse team and the APLU event.

The APLU has jurisdiction over matters where individuals have violated the Code of Conduct at APLU events. The start of the timeline of an event is from when a team or individual arrives in country for the event and finishes when they leave the country.

To follow are the rules and expectations which need to be strictly followed by all as they represent their country in a APLU event.

Responsibilities:

1. Represent the APLU, your country and your teammates in a positive manner at all times.
2. The APLU prohibits possession and /or drinking of alcoholic beverages by any team member who is under the legal drinking age.
3. Use of illegal drugs and non-doctor prescribed prescription drugs is prohibited.
4. The APLU prohibits possession and or drinking of alcoholic beverages by any team member in uniform, regardless of age, before, during or after a contest to include exhibitions and clinic demonstrations.
5. Excessive use of alcohol by any team member of any age which results in bringing discredit to the APLU and the country involved is unacceptable.
6. Use of alcohol in violation of the rules of the institution which is providing housing for team(s) is prohibited.
7. Violation of curfews and rules established by the institution which is providing housing for team(s) is prohibited.
8. Any legal problems outside of lacrosse which brings discredit to the APLU and the country represented is unacceptable.

I have read the above player's Code of Conduct and I understand it is my responsibility to conduct myself in an appropriate manner.

I have also read and agree to the APLU Policy Harassment and Discrimination July 2019
